

The Houston Chapter of AWRT will award several scholarships and summer internships to juniors or seniors studying to enter the media or a related field. Students must have at least one full-time semester left of college. For internships, students must be living in Houston during the Summer of 2010. Students must receive university credit for their internship. Finalists will be contacted in March for a personal interview. The awards will be announced by April 2, 2010. Internships will begin in June.
